Small, simple steps to timeless design

Wallpaper added to this powder room is a wonderful way to add pop.

Everyone likes to be up-to-date with the recent design trends, but how can you incorporate them into your homes while still embracing timeless design? One simple step: start small. The following are some easy items you can bring into your home without worrying if it's going to date you in a few years. (Can you say avocado green countertops?)

Wallpaper

Wallpaper has been making a comeback for a few years now, but I still get clients who look at me sideways when I suggest it. I'm sure we have all either grown up with, or knew someone who had some hideous floral-print wallpaper (OK, I admit it, I have too). Or worse, the dreaded wallpaper border. Well I'm here to tell you that wallpaper has come a long way, baby.

When I suggest wallpaper to clients today I advise that "a little goes a long way." Geometric designs, grass cloth and large print patterns are all on point. As for placement, try it out in a small powder bath, make a statement in your entry, or even try it out on that fifth wall – the ceiling.

Brass

No, the '80s haven't called and asked for their brass back. We are not talking about the shiny, cheap brass toilet paper holders and shower door trims of old. Today it's the warm classic brass and more specifically the unlacquered brass that develops a patina over time. I encourage my clients to mix their metals. There is nothing wrong with having, say, brass pendants in your kitchen with a chrome faucet, brass cabinet hardware and stainless appliances.

And just like with wallpaper, a little goes a long way. Start off small, incorporate a brass lamp in your living room, or try a small brass side table. I love sourcing unique brass pieces at local vintage shops, flea markets, Etsy and eBay. Even mainstream retail stores are getting in on the brass love. (Check out Target, West Elm and Restoration Hardware.)

Color

Color is a great way to express yourself in your home. You do not necessarily have to commit to a mustard yellow sofa or paint your walls pink, but you can bring it into the space in small doses. By keeping your big upholstery pieces neutral you can bring in color with accent pillows, rugs, accessories or artwork. Or maybe add a painted piece of furniture. Some popular colors currently are any and all blues – especially navy – greens, from light pale sage to dark emerald, pinks and blush-tones, orange and warm mustard yellow.
