

Bethlehem event retells a timeless story

Every two years or so, the Lafayette United Methodist Church transforms its Fellowship Hall, creating the illusion of a nighttime passage through the streets of Bethlehem over 2,000 years ago. The church's Bethlehem Experience brings to life the Christmas story; 2017 marks the 20th anniversary of its presentation at LUMC. Over the course of three days, guides lead groups of about 10-12 people on 50-minute tours through the marketplace of Bethlehem, caping the spirit of what life would have been like on the night of the Messiah's birth. Performers dressed in robes and sandals sell their wares in market stalls, while festive Jewish music plays and unleavened bread is sold. There are even live animals in the stable, such as Kazzy the camel – the church's first and much-beloved therapy animal from Sonoma's Lyon Ranch.

The program was initiated in 1997 by then-program coordinator Bev Luther, says LUMC parishioner Teresa Gerringer. Participants sing carols, hear live music and play a biblical trivia game. They may also dress as shepherds, although the latter is not required. In addition to being family-friendly, this is a family tradition for many LUMC members. "Fran and Vic Smith and Barbara and Rod Levander are still very active in the production of The Bethlehem Experience and are original set builders, greeters and actors," Gerringer says. She added the Logan, Placzek, Kintner and Shepard/Seitz families as those who have contributed to the production.

Gerringer says "the live animals in the manger scene are always a huge hit with kids and adults."

Some years the youngest actor is an infant portraying baby Jesus. Even inclement weather doesn't deter visitors – Gerringer recalls that LUMC hosted the most attendees ever in 2006 "when it poured rain for the three nights."

The 20th annual Bethlehem Experience runs Dec. 15-17 at Lafayette United Methodist Church, 955 Moraga Road, Lafayette. Tours are first-come, first-served; doors open at 5:30 p.m. The last tour departs at 8:30 p.m. Suggested donation is $5 per person or $20 per family.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Moraga Valley Presbyterian Church offered its similar no-cost program Dec. 2 when MVPC's Live Nativity transformed the church courtyard into a Bethlehem manger featuring live animals.

Thank you for Shopping Local this Holiday

When you think about it, isn't it more fun to do business with people you know, like and trust? Your local merchants work hard for your loyalty. So please remember them this holiday season. When you shop locally, you help create a strong tax-base by circulating money in town versus sending it elsewhere. This helps pay for police, road repairs and other essential services you count on and you are supporting the businesses that generously donate to local schools and non-profits throughout the year.

Enjoy the season.
