Submitted by Steve Bartis, Committee Chair, Troop 212

Life Scout Griffin Bartis on Jan. 31 provided a flag retirement for a worn out American flag which was flying at Soda Aquatic Center on the Campolindo High School campus. The retired flag will be brought to Camp Timberwolf along Lower Bucks Lake in Quincy, California (home of Troop 212) this July and officially retired along with many other flags, by the Boy Scouts in the Troop. If you have a worn out flag and would like to have it officially retired, please drop it off at the Troop 212 (red) hut located at 1279 Moraga Way, across from the fire station.
