Findlay Named AUHSD Educator of the Year

On June 1, Karen Findlay was recognized as Educator of the Year for the Acalanes Union High School District. In the past this award has been given to teachers, but as Superintendent Nickerson explained this year it was expanded to include educators from counselors to the librarians and beyond. "I'm very surprised - it's an amazing place to work, and I'm so happy to be here," said Findlay. She's been involved in a variety of things on campus, serving on the Technology Committee and the Academic Honesty committee, and as a co-coach for the Academic Decathlon team.
