And the Winner is ...

We have a winner and the Lafayette Reservoir Run hasn't even started yet. Acalanes student Miles Hoeser beat out 150 other creative classmates in teacher Susan Lane's art classes and was chosen by members of the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce to have his image grace the front of 2,000 T-shirts, and countless posters in shop windows across town. If you look closely at the year in the lower left corner, the Reservoir tower is deftly incorporated into the date. When asked about his inspiration Hoeser replied he was thinking of a way to illustrate fun while running to come up with his very unique image. He will be wearing the T-shirt, along with roughly 1,999 others while participating in the annual Res Run on the morning of Oct. 27. C. Tyson
