Saturday morning an Orinda County Sheriff's Office, at 9:02 a.m., investigated a 110-tree vegetation removal project along Miner Road, the main reason for the traffic congestion. The project along Miner Road, the main reason for the traffic congestion.

The project along Miner Road, the main reason for the traffic congestion.

The project along Miner Road, the main reason for the traffic congestion.

The project along Miner Road, the main reason for the traffic congestion.

The project along Miner Road, the main reason for the traffic congestion.

The project along Miner Road, the main reason for the traffic congestion.

The project along Miner Road, the main reason for the traffic congestion.

The project along Miner Road, the main reason for the traffic congestion.

The project along Miner Road, the main reason for the traffic congestion.

The project along Miner Road, the main reason for the traffic congestion.

The project along Miner Road, the main reason for the traffic congestion.