Lamorinda football in the playoffs; Campo leading the way

Miramonte's defense gave up 29.5 points/game though they were not without their own highlights. "We had a goal line stands against Encinal which allowed us to have 2-3 score advantage, allowing us to coast at the end." Besides Ross, DE Andreas Corbett, LB Aiden Stone and Dunno, Bohlig at the safety positions and Chase Bliss who was the team's best corner were key players on defense. Acalanes

Offense was not the question for Acalanes, averaging 43.6 points per game, finishing the season with a 6-5 record. Luke Souza ran the offense throwing for 3,145 yards, 38 TD with only eight interceptions and a QB rating of 129.5.

Seniors Will Berrien (62/855 10 TDs), Dante Montgomery (58/1108/14 TDs) and Evan Malmquist (26/234) led the receiving core with underclassmen, Trevor Rogers, Ethan Torres, Andrew Habas, Paul Kuhner ready to step in next year. Malmquist also rushed for 1,010 yards and junior Ellis Burger ran for 341 yards, averaging 12.6 yards/carry.

Acalanes gave up 25.5 points per game. "Defensively we struggled with the size of our players," Coach Floyd Burnsed said. "We had a hard time stopping the run and making plays when we need to make a big play."

The Dons' loss to El Cerrito in the NCS first round game was another example of mistakes sabotaging Acalanes' chance to advance in the playoffs. "Late in the first half, we were up 26-6 and we fumbled the ball at midfield. El Cerrito ran a half-back pass, and our DB came up and they completed it down to the 3-yard line, scoring on the last play of the half, which fired them up. They then got the ball to open the second half and they scored in three plays." El Cerrito eventually won the game 40-32.

With 30 returning players on the varsity, 44 players coming up from JV and a freshmen squad that had 58 players, this should set the foundation for next year's team.
