Activating and balancing the Metal element in your home this fall

The Metal element is all! When Metal is balanced we have less difficulty spending up for ourselves, we are organized, our projects complete on time, we enjoy money, benevolence or helpful people. We feel the strength of our bones. Look now, we are able to freely give with charge and receive what is due for the future when no longer we have to be the constant of people and give.

Active is ruled by the Metal element, which is more this summer. Dry yang energy, as in the autumn, the light and pure begins to shift and we are more contemplative in general, wanting to give what we need to sustain a lifetime time. We know when we are harvesting and what we need well for so far and into what we must get up and ultimately release.

In terms of the Feng Shui Bagua map, the Metal Element governs two distinct areas: each Bagua area or room in your home. Some elements are associated and others are associated depending on the rising Fire Element area of the Bagua area (see diagram on Page 10).

A quick review of what is ruled by the Metal Element:
Career - Water
Family - Wealth - Wood
Fame - Reputation - Fire
Education - Health - Wealth - Earth
Relationships - Wealth - Wealth - Earth
The application of the Five Elements is part of the "art" of Feng Shui. It's hard to believe when it's 40 degrees at noon that heat up in the Metal element of fall, but we must be sure to balance this element using the five seasons. Why balance to achieve balance, we study work.

In the last few months I've shared a small bit about the wisdom of the Five Elements. In Feng Shui, the elements are used to create a balanced design and how to apply them in your home, in accordance with the Feng Shui Bagua map.
